ARCHAEO-NEVADA SOCIETY
Membership Application Form (page 2)

Included in the A-NS Code of Ethics is an agreement to abide by the Archaeological Resource Protection Act of 1979 and other relevant legislation.

Please read the following and initial below.

The Archaeological Resources Protection Act of 1979 (ARPA)
P.L. 96-95, 93 Stat. 721-72B:2, 16 USC 470aa-47011

ARPA establishes a permitting requirement for the excavation or removal (e.g., collection) of archaeological sites and artifacts from public and Indian lands, including National Forests, Bureau of Land Management lands and Military reservations.

ARPA prohibits the excavation, removal, alteration, and the defacement of any archaeological resources located on public or Indian land without a permit from the land managing agency. It prohibits trafficking in archaeological resources obtained in violation of Federal law, including their sale, purchase or transport and offers to sell, purchase, or transport illegally obtained artifacts. It also prohibits trafficking (in interstate or foreign commerce) in archaeological resources obtained illegally under any State or local law.

Under ARPA the removal of artifacts from public lands without a permit is prohibited. Specifically, CFR Title 36 - Parks, Forests, and Public Property, Part 296, Section 261.9 (h) prohibits "removing any paleontological, prehistoric, historic, or archaeological resource, structure, site artifact or property" from the National Forest or any other public lands. The intent of the law is clear-damaging cultural resources and collection of artifacts, including arrowheads, from public lands without a permit is prohibited and subject to criminal and, in some cases, civil penalties.

Felony violations of any of these prohibitions are punishable by fines up to $250,000 and imprisonment up to two years for the first conviction, and up to $250,000 and 5 years on second and subsequent convictions. It also allows for the confiscation (forfeiture) of equipment used in connection with the violation and the assessment of civil penalties equal to the scientific or commercial value of the resource and the cost of restoration and repair (up to double those costs for the second and subsequent convictions).

NEVADA STATE REGULATIONS

NRS 381.197 Permit required to investigate, explore, or excavate historic or prehistoric site: No person shall investigate, explore, or excavate an historic or prehistoric site on federal or state lands or remove any object therefrom unless he is the holder of a valid and current permit issued pursuant to the provisions of NRS 381.195 to 381.227, inclusive. (Added to NRS by 1959, 290)

By initialing this form, I (we) acknowledge that I (we) have read, and understand the above, and agree to abide by the intent of ARPA and other relevant Federal and State regulations while participating in any A-NS field trip or activity. (Each member of a Household Membership must initial individually.)
